

I would like to be able to use my cell phone while aboard airborne aircraft. This capability would enhance my productivity while on travel and make it easier to communicate travel delays in time to be useful to others.